

Canolfan Saith Seren November 2016

There was a special evening to celebrate the life of Ieu Rhos with Geraint Lovegreen.

Many people paid tribute to Ieu, including Arthur Thomas, Lynn Gwyn, and David Subacchi.

Here are Siwan and Morgan from Menter Iaith Maelor during the half term holiday crafts workshop with Deiniol ac Osian.

The Ysgol Morgan Llwyd sixth form team were very happy to come third in this month's quiz!

Aled Lewis Evans with some of the poets from the Viva Voce night.

Rosie and Matthew from Gogs performed once again and they were brilliant as usual.

Canolfan Saith Seren Rhagfyr 2016

Huw, Bob a Judith in their Christmas tops ready for the Clwb Clebran party.

Côr DAW performed at the Wrexham Leanners Christmas party, and Saith Seren was full to capacity!

Here are some of the children singing Christmas carols in Saith Seren

There was a successful party for families on Christmas Eve to sing carols.

We had an unforgettable night in the company of Bryn Fôn a'r Band. Saith Seren was packed and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Here are Avril, Neil, Nia and Bryn having some fun after the band finished performing. The singing around the piano continued into the early hours!

Canolfan Saith Seren Ionawr 2017

Lowri Roberts from Siop Cwlwm with the Pop-up Shop which comes to Saith Seren every month. Following the closure of Siop y Siswrn we are selling Welsh goods in partnership with Siop Cwlwm.

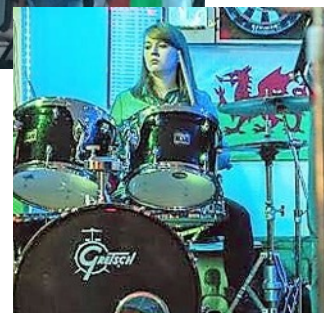

A Local Produce Fayre was held with many Wrexham small businesses displaying their goods.

Saith Seren was packed on the 27th of January to celebrate 5 years of being open, with the Rhos Orpheus Choir. It was a wonderful evening and the choir were amazing.

We had a great night with local band 'Made in Wales'. The Wednesday Jam night is very popular. Here's Elin playing drums.

The Viva Voce Literary night with Clwb Celbran was a big success.

Antony, Ed and Pol jamming in the Music Club, which meets every Tuesday. Come over if you would like to play and chat.