

Canolfan Saith Seren

- July / August

Our old favourites 'Y Moniars' came to entertain us once again and were wonderful as usual.

The 'Y Clawdd' Annual General Meeting was held and here everyone studying the latest issue.

Wynne Roberts, the 'Welsh Elvis' came and we had a great evening in his company. Here he is with his new group of female backing singers!

Matthew a Rosie, of 'Y Gogs', performed again in a charity night they organised themselves.

After the excitement of Euro 2016, Menter Maelor organised a football sticker swapping session .

Canolfan Gymraeg Saith Seren - September

We had a very humorous evening in the company of the comedian and musician Hywel Pitts. 'Y Tai Sanctaidd' came over from Caernarfon, with the young local band 'The Dread' supporting them.

It has been great to see Welsh lessons starting again after the summer break. Here are Aled Lewis Evans and Bob Edwards' classes. Following the restructuring of Welsh for Adults, we don't have as many Welsh lessons in Saith Seren, and therefore less income, but we're proud of those we have.

Copies of the 25 pictures on the walls of Saith Seren are on sale for £20 (£15 to supporters). The pictures are about the History and Culture of Wales (Owain Glyndŵr, Gwynfor Evans, Saunders Lewis, John Charles, Ray Gravell, Hedd Wyn, Gwenllïan, Michael D. Jones, Ifan ab Owen Edwards, Tryweryn, Is-lwyn Ffowc Elis, Calon Lân, Hen Wlad Fy Nhadau....). the perfect christmas gift! Contact Chris Evans on 07885567512 if you would like a framed copy.
