

Canolfan Gymraeg Saith Seren - April

We had a wonderful evening in the company of Huw M (above) and the local band 'Gogs' (left). It was great to see so many young people in the audience.

The comedian Eilir Jones (right) came to entertain us and we had a belly full of laughs!

We were part of the Dee Valley Real Ale Trail, along with many other locations. We opened for breakfast 9 and were busy all day, with the buses delivering a new batch of enthusiastic real ale drinkers every half hour.

To celebrate that a year has passed since Saith Seren was saved from closure, we decided to produce a video to put on YouTube to mark the occasion, and to thank those that have supported us. It describes the history of the centre from the beginning, to the sounds of Dafydd Iwan's inspiring 'Yma o Hyd'. Remember to watch it!

Canolfan Gymraeg Saith Seren - May

Here are the winning team from the May quiz under the leadership of team captain Lyn Gwyn

Clwb DAW (Wrexham Area Learners) staged a fantastic evening of musical entertainment in the style of 'Michael Jackson'

Congratulations to Cllr. Arfon Jones, one of Saith Seren's most enthusiastic supporters, on his election as Police Commissioner for North Wales. Here is Arfon with his wife Gwenfair and one of his daughters, Eysyllt.

There were hugely enjoyable Welsh language gigs by Alistair James, Brython Shag, and Candellas during the month.

S4C football commentators Malcolm Allen and Nic Parry entertained us with some fascinating anecdotes on an evening arranged in conjunction with 3C from Mold.

Dafydd Iwan and Ar Log came back to see us in Saith Seren at the end of June. It was an unforgettable evening with the centre full to capacity.

There were huge celebrations during Wales' journey through Euro 2016. Here are Nia, Carrie and Esme, some of the staff who worked so hard during Wales' six matches.

Left - Celebrations from the victorious June quiz winning team! The monthly quiz, arranged in partnership with Menter Maelor, is a very popular fixture in the calendar.

Mair Tomos Ifans led the singing during an evening arranged by the Monday evening Clwb Clebran.

